Be a part of something great

On or off the ice, there are plenty of ways for members to participate at the Sydney Curling Club:

- The club is run by a volunteer board of directors. New members are always welcome to join the board.
- Members can volunteer to run a night and host special events.
- Members can rely on great group to pitch ideas and host charitable fundraisers.

There is a place for you on one of our various committees.

Without the help of volunteers, our Club could not exist; come join our community.
